
Left: each point averages three generation draws; black diamond ±1 training-seed SD (n=5).
Right: each point is one generation draw; black diamond ±1 sampling SD (n=3). These spreads are different quantities; neither is a confidence interval.